

TWO CENTS.

SCRANTON, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1897.

FIRST BLOOD OF THE STRIKE

One Thousand Miners Are Wrought to a Frenzy by Sight of Gore.

CAPT. BELLINGHAM'S NERVE

By Diplomacy He Prevented a Riot.

A storm is provoked by one of the Sheriff's Deputies who assaulted a striker—Captain Bellingham, by good-natured talk, persuades the miners to await the action of court. President Dolan postpones further marches.

Pittsburg, Aug. 13.—Injunctions by the court have put a stop to marches by the striking miners against the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company, for a time at least. But in the execution of the injunctions, the sheriff and his deputies narrowly escaped precipitating serious trouble. As it was, the first blood of the strike was shed. Henry Stewart, one of the sheriff's deputies struck Jacob Matt, a drummer of the McDonald band, with the edge of a brass horn and cut a severe gash over the eye. The sight of the blood wrought up the 1,000 idle miners to such a pitch that a desperate conflict was imminent. The deputies were excited and noisy. The strikers were jeering and yelling and urging a further rush down the road. In that crowd there were enough angry strikers to annihilate four times the force of officers on the ground. Captain Bellingham, Sheriff Lowry, Chief Deputy James Richards and Superintendent De Armit were the only cool men in the assemblage. To them and to Captain Bellingham belongs the credit of averting a riot. When Bellingham saw there was danger of his men getting beyond his control he commanded a halt and addressed himself to the task of restraining the more belligerent. So well were his efforts directed that he soon restored comparative order.

Sheriff Lowry had a difficult task to perform but he landed it well and by his coolness and good nature did much to neutralize the bitterness and strife invited by the behavior of his subordinates. The strikers finally retired and marched back to their camp. There were several other brushes with the deputies but no actual collision.

After the miners returned to camp, the officers conferred with their attorney, who advised them to quit marching until the court had heard the argument next Monday on the bill in equity brought by the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company, as it might injure their case if they were brought up for contempt before the court.

NO MORE MARCHES.

President Dolan then issued orders that no marches would be made on any of the mines of the New York and Cleveland company until further orders although the strikers may be against other places. In place of the marching mass meetings will be held and speeches made as a means of keeping the miners of the company from going to work. Two meetings will be held at Plum Creek tomorrow afternoon at which addresses will be made by George Harris, of the central Pennsylvania field, Mrs. Jones, of Chicago, William Warner and Cameron Miller. The miners of the New York and Cleveland company will be urged to be present. The feature of the scene this morning was the fact that the women sympathizers for the first time in the strike participated in a daylight demonstration, and like their brethren in the cause, they were ordered to cease using the public highways for a parade ground.

There were no signs of trouble tonight. The strikers remained within their camp and the deputies were on guard they had little to do. In order to more thoroughly fortify his position, Sheriff Lowry swore in twenty additional deputies tonight and dispatched them to Plum Creek. The sheriff does not think there will be any trouble at any of the mines of the New York and Cleveland company and is fully convinced the miners will do the right thing. He is now confident that he can handle the strikers and if the injunction of the Allegheny county courts are made final, they will obey the order. He has given strict orders, however, not to permit any marching and to enforce the law even if compelled to arrest all the leaders in the movement.

Up to a late hour tonight, Colonel Schoyer, esc. counsel for DeArmit had not prepared the petition to court asking that the strikers show cause why an attachment should not issue against them for contempt. The sheriff did not know when this is to be done but it is likely no further action will be taken until after the final hearing on Monday. So long as the men simply camp there without marching to the mines and interfering with the men going to and from work they will not be disturbed.

SCHLATTER READY TO ELOPE

Has Not Abandoned Hope of Marrying Mrs. Ferris.

Canton, O., Aug. 13.—The divine healer, Schlatter, has not yet become a benedict. Mrs. Ferris has been kept in her home and friends stand guard to prevent any elopement. Schlatter declares that he is ready to fill his obligations. He carries with him as evidence of the assertion the marriage license, for which he paid 75 cents.

Schlatter secured one thing by the marriage license purchase, although he did not get the bride, and that was plenty of advertising. His business has

TRIPLE INCREASE AND CROPS LARGE

Signs of Prosperity Are Seen at Every Hand.

NEW YORK THROGGED WITH BUYERS

Stocks Are Rising, Railroad Earnings on the Increase, and All Indications Point to an Upward Rush Not Exceeded in 1879—July Payments at the Clearing Houses Exceeded Those of 1892—in All Industries a Large Demand for Products Appears.

New York, Aug. 13.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Every city reporting this week notes increase in trade, and nearly all bright crop prospects. The great change in business is emphasized by the presence of a multitude of buyers from all parts of the country, by their hasty purchases, and more forcibly yet by the heavy purchases they are making. But the customary signs of prosperity are not lacking. The strong rise in stocks, the growth of bank clearings and railroad earnings, the heavy speculation in many products, but most of all in wheat, have made the week one of surpassing interest even to those who best remember the upward rush in 1879. At the principal clearing houses throughout the country payments in July were on the first time slightly larger than in 1892, and 11.10 per cent. larger than last year; in the first week of August 7.7 per cent. larger than in 1892 and 24.4 per cent. larger than last year and in the second week of August they were 17.9 per cent. larger than in 1892 and 38.1 per cent. larger than last year.

The great crops and the haste of foreign buyers to buy and ship what in view of shortage elsewhere, have made the week memorable. Taking of profits by a pool lowered the price 3 cents on Saturday; but it has since risen 5 cents. Western receipts, slow in July, have in two weeks been 7,395,712 bushels against 6,722,362 last year and Atlantic exports, four included, have been in the same two weeks 4,114,033 bushels against 3,384,313 last year. Even the demand for corn, by greatly exceeding last year's shows that foreign anxieties are serious, for 5,519,125 bushels have been exported in two weeks from Atlantic ports against 2,514,428 last year. The price has advanced 1.12 cents, notwithstanding enormous stocks brought over. The urgency of French buying of wheat, reports that Russia will stop exports in order to keep supplies for itself, and continued shipments from the Pacific to countries usually having a surplus, make even the largest estimate of probable supplies not too great for the possible demand.

LARGE DEMAND FOR PRODUCTS.

In all the great industries, a large demand for raw materials and intermediate products. In the iron and steel branch, starting of many works after settlement of wages keeps prices low and even depresses some, but the fact that the demand is growing leads to heavy purchases. In the cotton branch, the demand is growing leads to heavy purchases. In the cotton branch, the demand is growing leads to heavy purchases. In the cotton branch, the demand is growing leads to heavy purchases.

SUICIDE'S IDENTITY.

Charles Clifford's Real Name Was Elsworth.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—The police department received information today which tends to show that Charles Clifford, who killed his wife and then committed suicide on Wednesday, was the son of a wealthy Buffalo, N. Y., family and his real name was Charles Clifford Elsworth.

His wife was Lottie Heller, a Buffalo girl, who eloped from a convent sixteen years ago, married Elsworth and went on the stage under the name of Clifford. Mrs. Clifford's mother and a sister are said to be residing on Seneca street, Buffalo.

TRAGEDY OF A POLE HUNTER.

Clifford, the Chicago Xeroxide and Suicide, Was with Greely.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 13.—Charles W. Clifford, who killed his wife and himself yesterday at their home, on Rush street, was a member of the famous Greely expedition to the North Pole. He took part in the killing of the ill-fated Henry, whom hunger had driven to steal part of the supplies portioned out to others. Clifford went with the expedition as a carpenter.

His mother, Mrs. Gustave A. Fenner, of whom Clifford was jealous, has been suspended by Chief of Police Kopley pending investigation.

COULDN'T ESCAPE BOTH GIRLS.

Married One, but Will Be Sued by the Other.

Freeport, Ill., Aug. 13.—George Sporen and Miss Mary Schroeder, of Warren, were married yesterday, the bride having won her husband through a breach of promise suit. Sporen was to have married a young woman at Batavia last night, but when he arrived in that town yesterday he was met by a summons in the hands of the sheriff and changed his mind.

A breach of promise suit was threatened whenever she is married, and he chose the one he loved best.

Spanish Prison Revolt.

Madrid, Aug. 13.—According to an official dispatch from Manila, Philippine Islands, a serious revolt and outbreak has taken place at the military prison, Pampanga. In the efforts to restore order, two Spanish soldiers were killed and seventy-three insurgents. Many were wounded on both sides.

Anarchist or Crank.

Paris, Aug. 13.—An Italian named Gallini was arrested today at the Gare de Lyon here for violently threatening France and declaring that he intended to imitate Caserio Santos, the assassin of President Carnot. The police have not yet decided whether the prisoner is an anarchist or merely a crank.

CARLISTS ARE THREATENING

Thousands in England Are Ready to March Into Spain.

LONDON IS A STRONGHOLD

The Dwelling Place of Many Malcontents.

LEADERS HOPE TO PROFIT BY THE MURDER OF CANOVAS—PRECAUTIONS TAKEN BY SPANISH GOVERNMENT AGAINST A REVOLT—MEETINGS IN LONDON.

London, Aug. 13.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon, in an article upon the increasing activity of the Carlists, says it is not generally known that London is one of the strongholds of the Carlists, thousands of active followers of the claimant of the Spanish throne being located in this city. The article adds: "Their leaders seem to think that the fall of Canovas brings their opportunity nearer. During the past week they have held many meetings to discuss the best means of assisting their colleagues in Spain in the event of a rising occurring."

The Chevalier Lumby, head of the Carlist club, during the course of an interview is quoted as saying: "The Carlists are highly organized throughout Spain. When Don Carlos next lands nothing but vigorous interference will prevent him from reaching the throne. There are 10,000 volunteers in England ready to fight for him."

Madrid, Aug. 13.—Military precautions have been taken for some time against the possibility of a Carlist or Republican rising, and additional efforts are now being made here, at Barcelona, Bilbao and Seville to prevent an invasion.

PRINCE HENRI'S DUEL.

The Second Postpone Action on Account of the New Challenges.

Paris, Aug. 13.—The second of Prince Henry of Orleans and General Alberton had a brief interview today, but they postponed the discussion of the proposed duel between the general and the prince in consequence of the intervention of Prince Victor Emmanuel, Count of Turin, the second nephew of the king of Italy, who claims precedence over all others in the matter. The count is a major of cavalry in the Italian service.

Rome, Aug. 13.—A local newspaper says that the Count of Turin, who is understood to have challenged Prince Henry of Orleans to fight a duel, left Italy secretly for that purpose, his departure being unknown even to the commissioner of police. It is added that the count was accompanied by the Marquis di Giori and an aide-de-camp. Swords are reported to have been selected as the weapons to be used in the encounter.

DIPLOMATS ATTEND MASS.

Ambassadors in London Honor the Memory of Canovas.

London, August 13.—A requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late prime minister of Spain, Senor Canovas del Castillo, was celebrated today in the Spanish church. The stars were draped with black and in the center of the main aisle was a catafalque covered with a pall of purple velvet with a large gold cross. Among those present were the Spanish ambassador, Count Casa Valencia and his staff, all in full uniform; the Italian ambassador, Col. John Hay; the German ambassador, Count Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg; the Italian ambassador, General Ferrero; most of the ministers, Henry White, secretary of the United States embassy; Lord Glenesk, proprietor of the Morning Post, and many ladies.

ITALIAN ANARCHISTS ARRESTED.

The Police Claim to Have Evidence of an International Plot.

London, Aug. 13.—A special dispatch from Milan says three Anarchists were arrested there early today and that the police seized a number of documents, bombs and explosives. The documents, it is said, include letters from Caserio Santos, the assassin of President Carnot and Pietro Acciarri, who attempted to assassinate King Humbert in April last. Other arrests are expected to follow.
